THE SCOTSMAN

LA CLIQUE

The outrageous, unforgettable, legendary La Clique returns to Brighton with an array of hilariously charismatic characters.

A magical show like no other, La Clique was born in 2003 and went on to scoop a host of awards, including an Olivier on the West End, before playing to sell-out houses world-wide. Funny, sexy and dangerous, La Clique showcases the world's best circus, cabaret, burlesque, new variety and illusion.

3-5, 7-12, 14-19, 21-26, 28-31 May, 1-2 June 21.00 £20 (617) (1h30mins)

LONDON SOLOISTS ENSEMBLE
John Lanchester (clarinet), Loraine McArdin (violin), Kerne Gillmore (cello)
A mixed programme of chamber music including Brahms Piano Trio in C minor, salon favourites by Elgar, Walton and Kodály, and Carl Vine's mesmerising Inner World for cello and backing tape, exploring the incredible range of sounds that can be produced from the cello.

Sat 18 Mar 7.45pm, £15/£12

BULLET CATCH
A remarkable, multi-layered and utterly gripping 'The Garden' musical, featuring a cast of 12, it tells the story of a young man whose father is a notorious figure in showbusiness - as this so dangerous that even the great Howard refused to attempt it. Tense and thought-provoking, Bullet Catch balances suspense and humour with a percussive exploration of despair and of the nature of choice.

Brighton Festival 2013
