

	ADAM CONROY Local musician Adam Conroy has been entertaining Australia for 30 years with his powerful blend of original guitar tunes and gutsy covers of rock greats like Bowie and Diamond. With special guests. THU 7 MARCH, 7pm, $25/$20		FRENCHAM SMITH "Delicious, emotionally intelligent and entrancing folk music for the 21st century." Fred Smith, Liz Frencham and band are a major force on the Australian festival circuit and are marking their 10th anniversary and debut CD "Into My Room". FRI 15 MARCH, 7pm, $30/$25		MARY COUGHLAN Direct from Ireland, international artist Mary Coughlan has been showcasing her powerful and bluesy jazz vocals since 1984, with nakedly honest interpretations of Peggy Lee, Billie Holiday, Chastity Moore and other heroes. TUE 19 MARCH, 7pm, $40/$35
	BEARDED GYPSY BAND Energetic and eclectic mix of celtic and gypsy folk, and gypsy jazz, the band, together since school and now at university, have played the '08 Tour Down Under Stirling Street Party and the Adelaide Festival Fringe with Arts Excentric, and are now on an east coast tour of Australia. WED 6 MARCH, 9pm, $25/$20		THE GADDLYS Mick & Phil Moriarty produce great songs, brotherly harmonies and rocking guitars. Re-live the vibe of The PITS, the Boot And Flogger and the Manuka Football Club. Anyone with The Gaddlys cover of "Don't Sleep In The Subway" - on vinyl - can expect a special price... and sincere condolences. TUE 12 MARCH, 9pm, $30/$25		MIKELANGELO & THE BLACK SEA GENTLEMEN Prepared to be drawn deep into the dark, velvet heart of the Black Sea by renowned Canberra exports: Giulio Libido on piano accordion, double bassist Little Ivan, Great Muldavia on clarinet, Rufino the Catalan Casanova on violin and impeccably coiffed master crooner, Mikelangelo. SAT 9 MARCH, 7pm & 9pm, $30/$25
	BEAUTIFULLY MAD From Canberra to ARIA Award winner and Australian Songwriter of the Year, Tony King's fiery 12-string solos coupled with heart-melting vocals by Nina Vox, backed by their band's New Orleans groove, flitters between folk and the silhouette of jazz to launch their new CD "Spin". THU 7 MARCH, 7pm, $20/$25		GANGA GIRI Ganga Giri (pronounced "gun-gah gear-ree") is a world-renowned digeridoo virtuoso who with his high-energy electronic world music fusion band creates an explosive dancefloor celebration that has ignited audiences across the globe, spreading his word of one world, one time, one people. FRI 8 MARCH, SAT 9 MARCH, 11pm, $20/$20		NATIONAL FILM & SOUND ARCHIVE OF AUSTRALIA: IMAGINING THE CAPITAL: CANBERRA ON FILM Feast on this cornucopia of Canberra life through its first century in this free open-air screening plus live stage show & music with the legendary Little Patti (Patricia Amphlett), Fred Smith, Louise Page, The Stiff Gins & Alice Coffee among others. SUN 10 MARCH, from 7.30pm, FREE
	BETWEEN THE DEVIL & THE DEEP BLUE SEA Multi-award winning and awe-inspiring documentary which tells the story of the 'refugee' in the words of asylum seekers themselves, through candid interviews and hidden camera footage. Film screening plus Q&A with guest speakers. (Bring toy & book donations to tent in March for children in detention.) SAT 16 MARCH, 2pm, $15/$10		GEORGE WASHINGMACHINE & FEEL THE MANOUCHE Dedicated to the Quintette du Hot Club de France that featured Django Reinhardt & Stéphane Grappelli, this gypsy jazz (manouche) show by a Canberra legend and friends brings a world music feel to small-group swing through double bass, guitar, accordion & fiddle. SAT 23 MARCH, SUN 24 MARCH, 9pm, $30/$25		NAUGHTY RHYTHMS (Double bill with CELL BLOCK 69) Leading Australian 1980s ska band and frequent guests on TV shows such as Hey Hey It's Saturday , the Naughties rocked Canberra not spot The PITS 30 years ago and are set to raise the Spiegeltent roof for Canberra's 100th birthday. FRI 15 MARCH, SAT 16 MARCH, 9pm, $30/$25
	BRIEFS After conquering Europe and a sell-out Sydney Festival season, this non-stop, eye-popping riot of physically and fun blurs the lines and breaks all the rules. An all-male contortion of vaudeville, burlesque, dance and clowning with definitely adult themes... "Laugh out loud funny" The Daily Telegraph . TUE 19 MARCH, WED 20 MARCH, THU 21, FRI 22, 9pm, $30/$25		THE GIRLS Five voices, 10 instruments, 21 songs and many stories. Local girls Dianna Nixon, Vanessa Nimmo, Kate Hosking, Beth Atkins and Larissa Stollar explore what it is to be a woman through a quirky mix of songs from Delibes, Gerstwin, Nick Cave and more. SAT 23 MARCH, 4pm, $30/$25		THE NOIR REVIEW Darker than shadows and steamier than a warm lamp-lit street after the rain, the Noir Review takes you back to a time when men were men and femmes were fatales . Kabaret with dark, bluesy song and dance, and perhaps a hint of nudity... THU 21 MARCH, SAT 23 MARCH, 11pm, $25
	BUDDHA & THE BOMB Original music you can't really dance to! This new ensemble showcases songwriting talents of Phil Moriarty (Gaddlys, Mikelangelo & TBSG), Gemma Clare (cello), Damon Davies (upright bass), Pete Saunders (drums), Martin Chabrier (saxophone) & Melanie Horsnal (guitar/backing vocals). WED 20 MARCH, 7pm, $25/$20		HOW GREEN WAS MY CACTUS Canberra: A Non-Car History - Rare opportunity to witness Australia's longest-running, multi-award winning radio comedy series recorded live. Keith Scott and Robyn Moore are joined by Makin' Whoopie duo, Tony King and Kris Ralph. "Unbeatable" The Canberra Times . WED 20 MARCH, 7pm, $40/$35		OBSESSION & DESIRE: MISADVENTURES IN LOVE & LUST Hearts and flowers til' dawn! Soprano Joanna Heston and Elaine Loebstein on piano explore the darker side of obsession and desire (being dumped, frustrated, promiscuous or just plain self-absorbed) through the songs of Sibelius, Schumann, Shostakovich and more. WED 13 MARCH, 9pm $20
~ THE FAMOUS SPIEGEL GARDEN ~
	CABARET POLITICO: SHORTIS & SIMPSON The election is on and Canberra's leading satirists tear apart the follies of our fearless leaders as the nose on the hung parliament is loosened. Humour and poignancy reign supreme in this musical review of Canberra political life. FRI 22 MARCH, 7pm, $30/$25		HOWLIN' STEAM TRAIN In one word: relentless. A fun, wild ride, with no-one left behind. It's rock, blues and boogie, seamlessly mashed together by a popstar singer, a rocker guitarist, a dreadlocked bassist and a wisecracking drummer, with every song taking off at breakneck speed... Relentless. FRI 22 MARCH, 11PM, $25/$20		PAUL MCDERMOTT IN CONCERT The McDermott jukebox - as presented by the acid-tongued, velvet-fansilled, modern-day song-and-dance man himself, cobbled by an all-star band - with original songs from Doug Anthony Allstars through to one-offs from TV's The Big Gig , Good News Week , The Sideshow and Melbourne Comedy Festival . SUN 24 MARCH, 5pm, $35/$30
	THE CANBERRA JAZZ CLUB Members of Sydney's Bridge City Jazz Band and Canberra's Black Mountain Jazz Band come together with their hot traditional New Orleans style. Also featuring Carol Ralph, one of Australia's finest singers of blues and gospel. SUN 17 MARCH, 3pm, $27		JAM ON TOAST Enjoy a creative slice of Jam On Toast with fabulous children's entertainer Jamie in this high-energy interactive original music show which has children (and parents) all joining in. Come and produce a seven-minute film around 10 Canberra-themed items! SAT 23 MARCH, 2pm; SUN 24 MARCH, 11am, adults FREE/children $10		PERCH CREEK FAMILY JUGBAND At times raging and relentless, at others placid and haunting, this multi-generational band of siblings specialises in chunky five-part vocal harmonies over trombone, banjo, washboard, double bass, blues harp, musical saw, tap dancing and, of course, the jug. THU 14 MARCH, 9pm, $25/$20
	CAROLINE NIN: HYMNE À PIAF From Paris with love, this classic femme fatale opens a window onto the tragic but inspiring life of Edith Piaf in a captivating tribute which breathes new life into familiar anthems such as La vie en rose , Hymne à l'amour and Padam . WED 13 MARCH, 7pm, $35/$30		LA 33 & NOVALIMA: CENTENARY DAY DANCE PARTY Fresh from WOMAD, the world's best dance party comes to town with Colombia's most famous salsa orchestra and the award-winning, cutting edge, Afro-Peruvian electronic ensemble. (Supported & hosted by the Embassies of Colombia and Peru, and the Council on Australia Latin America Relations.) TUE 12 MARCH, 6.30pm, $20		ROBYN ARCHER IN CONCERT: QUE RESTE-T-IL ? Robyn Archer, with pianist Michael Morley and accordion virtuoso George Butrumis, traces French song from Le Chat Noir and Lautrec's favourite, Aristide Bruant, through to the 1960s: Ferrer, Trenet, Brel, Gainsbourg, Brel, Montand, Bardot... Que reste-t-il? What remains? L'amour, toujours l'amour... SUN 3 MARCH, 8pm, $45/$40
	CELL BLOCK 69 (Double bill with NAUGHTY RHYTHMS) NB: The band wrote ALL the major Hits OF The 1980s (later stolen by unscrupulous pop artists) all 9 band members are called Corey; they perform an annual Last-Ever Show in 'Canberry'; AND they beat any 1980s experience - real OR imaginary! FRI 15 MAR, SAT 16 MARCH, 9pm, $30/$25		LIGHTS! CANBERRA! ACTION! Bring your beanbag and kick back in The Famous Spiegel Garden for the live finals of this short film festival during which budding filmmakers had 10 days to write, shoot, edit and produce a seven-minute film around 10 Canberra-themed items hidden across the city. FRI 8 MARCH, from 7pm, FREE		THE SHOUT BROTHERS Since the 1980s, at Newtown's Sandringham Hotel and Canberra's most famous Australian Club, Canberra-born brothers and brothers-in-arms, Benjie & Pat Hayes, Peter Velzen and Justin Credible, have championed songs that stir the soul, fire the mind and bleed the heart, from Roy Orbison to The Buzzcocks. SUN 10 MARCH, 11pm, $15
	DANIEL CHAMPAGNE His phenomenal guitar skills turn his solo performer into a three-piece band as he pushes the instrument beyond its boundaries and reaches into folk, blues, classical, jazz and more, with two-hand tapping and body percussion, along side sublime jazzy finger-picking. SAT 2 MAR, 7pm, $25/$20		MADAM PAT THOMPSON: FILM & TRIBUTE CONCERT Screening of the ABC documentary on the life of the late, great, Madam Pat Thompson, which traces her destiny as a singer, from the 1920s Melbourne Tivoli to her final performance, aged 84, in The Famous Spiegeltent. Followed by a tribute concert. Vale, Patty Brandl SUN 17 MARCH, 6pm, $20		SI XIAN: TRADITIONAL CHINESE MUSIC Pronounced "si-shiam" and meaning "silk strings", in the hands of Emma and Bruce - internationally acclaimed masters of these traditional Chinese stringed instruments - the Erhu and the Ruan produce beautiful traditional music from various ethnic regions of China. THU 7 MARCH, 9pm, $25/$20
	THE DIASPORA ALL-STARS BIRTHDAY PARTY Dance out the Day of Celebration at the hoopiest après-party in town and groove to the live soundtrack of your wasted youth: The Gaddlys, The Falling Joes, The Shout Brothers, George Washing Machine and many more. Come back to the era when entertainment in Canberra was the PITS! MON 11 MARCH, 9pm, $15		THE MARVELLOUS MIZDEMEOURS: SMACK BANG IN THE MIDDLE Seducing with jazz, blues and pop - all wrapped up in wicked harmonies - Miz Chief (Karen Strahan), Miz Hop (Gaye Reid), Miz Giving (Lisa McClelland) and Miz Conduct (Jill Walsh) perform Smack Bang in the Middle of their hometown. WED 6 MARCH, 7pm, $30/$25		THE WILD PARTY New Yorker magazine journalist and poet Joseph Moncure March's 1928 jazz era masterpiece is a tale of lust, love and revenge. Newly adapted by actor-director Pauline Wright with an original score by Jiri Kripac, also featuring Joe Woodward. SAT 16 MARCH, SAT 23 MARCH, 7pm, $30/$25
	FLAP! Turning all shoes into dancing pumps, this Melbourne-based five-piece band of brass, guitars, words and skins cranks out up-tempo songs: original music influenced by 1920s jazz, gypsy brass, English Folk and Trinidadian Calypso behind a fiery and charming Antipodean veneer. SUN 17 MARCH, 11pm, $25/$20

THE FAMOUS SPIEGEL GARDEN - CANBERRA CENTENARY 2013 - Tickets: www.spiegeltent.net

MARCH Sat 2	11am - 4pm	Daniel Champagne 8pm: Robyn Archer	7pm	9pm	11pm
Sun 3				Opening Night Party: The Shuffle Club 10pm: The Shuffle Club
Mon 4
Tue 5
Wed 6				Bearded Gypsy Band Si Xian: Traditional Chinese
Thu 7				Ganga Giri
Fri 8				Ganga Giri
Sat 9				Shout Brothers
Sun 10				The Diaspora All-Stars Party
Mon 11				The Gaddlys
Tue 12				Obsession & Desire
Wed 13				Perch Creek Family Band
Thu 14				The Naughty Rhythms + Cell Block 69
Sat 16				The Naughty Rhythms + Cell Block 69
Sun 17				Flap!
Mon 18
Tue 19				Briefs
Wed 20				Briefs
Thu 21				Briefs
Sat 23				George Washingmachine
Sun 24				George Washingmachine

FREE POSTER!

The Famous Spiegel Garden

~ SENATE ROSE GARDEN ~
Old Parliament House, Canberra

Wonderful Days and Wicked Nights ~ Concerts, Cabaret, Circus & Curious Creatures

Friday 1st to Sunday 24th March 2013

Tickets: at www.spiegeltent.net & at the door

100 CANBERRA ACT GOVERNMENT ActewAGL

The Famous Spiegel Garden is a Centenary of Canberra project, proudly supported by the ACT Government.